

Certified Public Accountant Bend, Oregon

Resume to Brenda Bartlett, CPA
bbartlett@sgabend.com

Our process is different. SGA Certified Public Accountants and Consultants is a unique team of like-minded individuals who contribute ideas and energy for the greater good. Our innovative, intentional approach involves collaboration, cooperation and participation at all levels of our firm. We specialize in working with high net worth entrepreneurs, helping them manage their personal and business accounts with thoroughness, accuracy and vision. For more than 30 years, we have relied on our good reputation, and we are fortunate that our main source of marketing is word-of-mouth referrals. Our team thrives in the energetic atmosphere created by our diverse projects and clients. We pride ourselves in our knack for in-depth research and our relationships with trusted advisors to provide our clients with non-traditional solutions.

You are:

- An experienced CPA who is comfortable managing client relationships and your team with ease and thoughtful consideration.
- Experienced in agriculture taxation and consulting and are eager to work with dynamic clients in this industry and continue to build this practice niche.
- An excellent communicator who effortlessly relates to clients in person, over the phone, and in email.
- An advocate for your clients, and your confidence is reassuring to them.
- Resourceful, and not afraid to tell a client you will get back to them tomorrow, allowing you time to research the best answer to their question.
- Naturally curious, and motivated to investigate new solutions to meet the demands of our progressive clients.
- One who appreciates entrepreneurial thinking and respects your clients, who are creative and willing to take risks to succeed.
- A proactive self-starter who keeps your promises, making you adept at managing and meeting deadlines.
- Open to critiques of your work, because you know the process of assessment and applied critical thinking is a learning opportunity.
- Energized by complex clients and projects, and enjoys the lack of predictability in your day-to-day work.
- One who enjoys brainstorming with colleagues, and is assertive in suggesting solutions, yet not afraid to acquiesce to a better idea.
- Open to embracing our unique, collaborative approach.

Fast-forward one year from today:

- Your solution-based approach allows you to manage your own client relationships, creating credibility and trust with them.
- You enjoy the challenge and excitement of working on varied projects, and appreciate the lack of tedium in your work.
- Your reputation as a cooperative and resourceful team player has earned you the respect of your peers as well as your clients.
- You have identified an underserved area within the firm, one where you gain expertise, and have begun building that niche.
- You are known for your ability to understand complex issues and careful, thorough reasoning.
- You regularly share what you learn with your clients and peers, adding to the collective knowledge base.
- You appreciate the acknowledgment you receive for your contributions, everything from brainstorming solutions to acquiring new clients.
- You have demonstrated discipline and accountability, earning trust and allowing you to take advantage of our cloud-based platform, giving you the flexibility to work from home occasionally and a healthy work-life balance.

Are you ready for your dream job with our team-oriented CPA firm in one of America's most desirable towns? You have:

- A minimum of five to seven years of public accounting experience.
- Experience managing and consulting with dynamic business and individual tax clients.
- Experience working with clients in the agricultural industry.
- An investigative and curious nature that drives you to look at problems from a different angle.

Make it yours:
Resume to Brenda Bartlett, CPA
bbartlett@sgabend.com

